Upgrade. Advance.

Foothill College offers veterans and active duty personnel the unique opportunity to learn new skills, adapt their military skills to civilian life, and earn a college degree or career certificate. Project Veterans is dedicated to helping you identify and pursue comprehensive academic and career-training programs that meet your personal and professional goals. We help armed services personnel achieve their educational goals by addressing their specialized needs in a college setting. Project Veterans Coordinator Charlie McKellar will help you with information, resources and guide you to the right student support services. We encourage veterans interested in pursuing a vocational goal, college degree, apprenticeship program, or taking courses for personal enrichment to begin their educational experience through Foothill's Project Veterans.
