

Online Learning Workshops

Lene Whitley-Putz <whitley-putzlene@fhda.edu>

Tue 2/7/2023 9:51 AM

To:Foothill Instructional Deans <foothillinstructionaldeans@foothilldeanza.onmicrosoft.com>

Hi Deans,

Please share the following upcoming OL events with your faculty:

Hello deans! Please share with your faculty the set of professional development workshops that Online Learning will be hosting this week. These are designed to support campuswide equity efforts and heighten awareness of the technology tools that can be used in all courses. The focus of our workshops this quarter is building quality interaction in the classroom (both virtual and face to face).

Hello faculty! This week Online Learning has three workshops on Zoom! Join us at 1PM Tuesday for Spring Forward: Create Resources for a Friendly, Warm, & Student-Centered Welcome. At noon on Wednesday we have Canvas tips and tricks, and at 1PM on Thursday to learn more about tips to effectively present and organize files in your Canvas site.

Getting the most from Canvas: Every Wednesday @ noon

This week:

- Spring Forward: Create Resources for a Friendly, Warm, & Student-Centered Welcome at 1PM Tuesday
- Effectively Present Files in Your Canvas Site at 1PM Thursday

Upcoming:

- Add buttons and banners to your course using Canva: 1PM 2/14
- Use Tabs Efficiently in Canvas: 1PM 2/21
- Studio videos for casual, just in time teaching: 1PM 2/23
- Can Rubrics be an Equity Tool?: Noon 2/28
- Foster a Culture of Care with High Standards and High Regard: 1PM 3/2
- Build a Community with Student Surveys: Noon 3/16
- Make it Simple! Simple Syllabus in Canvas: 1PM 3/23

For more information see our Workshop description page.

~Lené

Lené Whitley-Putz,
Dean, Online Learning
Foothill College

650-949-7388

Twitter: @lenewp

Pronounce my name: <https://www.name-coach.com/lene>