We Are Your Voice in Action

As a student of Foothill College, you are a member of the Associated Students of Foothill College, known as ASFC.

Campus Council — the official name of your student government — manages the affairs of ASFC.

The goal of ASFC Campus Council is to give a voice to all students, enabling YOU to become an integral part of the college community.

ASFC Campus Council Responsibilities

Some of our roles include: appointing students to shared governance councils and committees \(/asfc/college-governance.html\) to develop Foothill College policies and annual budgets, funding programs and projects through the annual ASFC budget, student advocacy, providing and administering a program of activities and services for students.

ASFC Campus Council Meetings

ASFC Campus Council meets weekly on THURSDAYS from 2-4 p.m. in Toyon Room 2018.
