10:00 | CORA: Equity-Minded Student Services in the Online Environment

The much anticipated second session of CORA's webinar series focused on equity in California Community Colleges. The unanticipated transition from face-to-face to online student services in response to COVID-19 presents a substantial challenge for most postsecondary institutions.

Student affairs professionals must be intentional about ensuring that the needs of historically underrepresented and underserved students are adequately addressed, especially during this time of crisis. This webinar will focus on discussing equity-minded student services strategies and practices that can be employed by community college professionals in the online environment. The conversation will be facilitated by Drs. Luke Wood and Frank Harris III. This is an outside event; register here. https://zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_UbhVm3BkQMm3huTooS27FQ

10:30 | Virtual Tour: Assessing Critical Thinking in Anthropology

Kathryn Maurer, Professor of Anthropology, will share how she builds opportunities for engagement (faculty to student and student to student) in a fully asynchronous class, and how she approaches the challenge of teaching and assessing critical thinking skills.

Presenter: Kathryn Maurer
