SPRING 2022 June 10 edition

Ongoing opportunities

Up Your Cultural Literacy Game!

Professional learning doesn't have to be formal! Each week I'll post a link to at least one article, blog post, paper, or podcast as food for thought.

June is LGBTQ+ History Month! In that spirit, here is an article by Nicole Pasulka from NPR's Code Switch podcast.

Ladies In The Streets: Before Stonewall, Transgender Uprising Changed Lives

"The June 1969 Stonewall riots in New York sparked the gay rights movement. But three years earlier, unrest in San Francisco marked the transgender community's public debut in the rights struggle."

Gene Compton's Restaurant was a popular eatery for San Francisco's trans community and in 1966 was the site of a landmark confrontation with police and transgender activists.

Summer Professional Development!

Whether you are teaching on campus, hybrid, or fully online, two years of COVID have impacted you and your students. This summer, Online Learning's PD offerings will focus on what we've learned from the last two years, leveraging these "lessons" to improve teaching and learning using digital tools.

We invite you to sign up to participate in a Summer Learning Community, or drop in to one of our many scheduled workshops-- we have almost 40 to choose from!

Open Office Hours with Carolyn

In person! Office 1945.

Summer Quarter Part Time Foothill Faculty Orientation

Monday, June 13

9AM - 12PM

Participate face to face in Room 2018 (Council Chambers) or online via Zoom

This is our quarterly part-time faculty orientation session. It's geared for brand-new PT faculty AND for veteran PT faculty who'd just like a refresher. Per Article 7 of our FA Agreement (7.26.1), all PT faculty are able to participate once a year and be you'll be reimbursed for your time at a rate of $25/hour*. If you haven't refreshed yet this academic year, now's your chance!

*Please note that we are only able to pay you one stipend per year. If you've already attended once this year you are welcome to attend again but we can't issue a second stipend for attending this one.

Third Annual Summer Learning Institute

Justice-centered Theory, Practice & Praxis

June 29-30, 2022

Don't miss this dynamic community college centered conference!

Join us for a 2-day virtual conference as we continue the work of the Summer Learning Institute – Justice-Centered Theory, Practice, and Praxis! In addition to talks on radically humanizing and antiracist pedagogy, we will highlight educational equity programs that are causing disruption for good. This year's SLI will also feature two exclusive book talks: The White Educators' Guide to Equity: Teaching for justice in community colleges (Peter Lang Publishers, 2022) and Until They're All Free: Humanizing pedagogy for justice-impacted students (edited by Sims and Hotep, Forthcoming).

Featured presenters include: Lasana Hotep, M.A., Jeramy Wallace, Dr. Tabitha Conway, IDEAL Fellows, and Dr. Jeremiah J. Sims.
