Asteroid 10A Lab Spring 2008

Predictions of Astrology

A.1) Aries rules the head, brain, and eyes. Some people with Aries sign prominent on charts are subject to head injury, headache and general problems with head ad fevers. - If we take a poll of random that has frequent problems with headaches and head injuries, we would see that this claim would be true for other people with signs other than Aries. It would be evenly distributed among other zodiac signs.

A.2) The aspect (geometric relationship between planets) determines favorable or less favorable outcomes in our lives (180, 90, 45, 135, 150 degree are favorable and 120, 60, 30 are unfavorable). - By surveying a group of people and analyzing the degrees the geometric relationship between planets, we would see that there will be varying outcomes between favorable and unfavorable lives of the degrees.

A.3) Your mate's sign and yours can determine if your guy can be together for a long term. Example, Sagittarius can't be with Scorpios because Scorpios loves to control, Sagittarius loves to be free. - If we check different couples with incompatible signs, we would see a few number of couples with incompatible signs who seems compatible

A.4) Your sign can determine what you are going to do for a living. Example, Sagittarius is born to do a tour guide because they love adventure and enjoy freedom. - Through the process of survey, we may see that the relationship between one’s sign and occupation vary and are inconsistent with this claim.

A.5) By seeing horoscope one can also tell the stocks situation. Example, 2010 something wrong with Saturn and Jupiter, so The Burst of Stock Bubbles will happen. - By analyzing the planets of Jupiter and Saturn, we may see that its relationship to the stocks does not consistently predict a stock situation through the peculiarities of these two planets.

A.6) The horoscope can also tell disasters. Example, the 921 earthquake that happened in Taiwan because August 11th had sun eclipse. - By analyzing all the sun eclipse, we may see that not all sun eclipses correlates to major disasters on earth.

A.7) How productive a person would be in a specific month – My horoscope is telling me that in the first three weeks of May I will outstandingly be productive, so “you should roll up my sleeves” and plan to work like mad. However I should not worry because I would not be alone “a whole slew of supportive little planets will gather around me like friendly elves to help me polish off many of the projects on my desk.” - Surveying a random sample of people, may suggest that not all of the people would be productive and a lesser percentage of people would be productive.

A.8) Personality of a person is determined by the month they were born. - Through a survey, the percentage of the relationship between the months a person is born and their personality will vary, around half of the people surveyed will say their personality is correlated with their month and the other half will say no.

A.9) Work prediction Astrology predicts that this month because of a truly extraordinary lineup of planets at the start of May, and because Venus (the planet of happiness) is in my solar sixth house of work projects sending vibes to Saturn (planet of stability) meaning that all the projects I’m working on during this month of May will have “legs and they would take me to a new important roads.” The work I do now, it could easily add to “a new growing number of people respecting me and giving me a new perspective to keep things fresh and interesting.” - By analyzing the lining of the planets in the month of May and the position of Venus, surveying random people could prove inconsistency with the claim in relationship to their solar houses.

A.10) Claim: Romance. Singe? Not for long time because of the new strong moon of this month of May, according to astrology I would meet prince charming. “If you didn’t meet anyone last month, you may this month in a work-related activity, networking event, party, or through sports, whether as a participant or spectator. If you are serious about someone special, things may begin to become more serious next month, so sit back and wait to see what happens.” Your most romantic events this month include May 2, 3, 10-11, 15, 19-21, 24, 25, and 30. - Using poll analyses of single people in these months, we may see less people with partners than without.

B.1 Claim: Virgos are likely to be scientists, but simply that they will be perfectionist, critically-minded and analytical

B.2 Claim: Astrology gives you insight into whom you will be most productive and who you should not be companion with. For example, a person whose zodiac sign is Taurus should not be companion with a person whose zodiac sign is Scorpio, because those two signs are opposed to one another so there won’t be a good result for both of them. - If we check our friends or families whose sign are Taurus and Scorpio, we can know they should not be together because there won’t be a good result for both of them.

B.3 Claim: A planet leave or com to your zodiac can affect whether or not you are lucky for this year. Example, Sagittarius is not so lucky in 2008 because Jupiter left its zodiac. - If we check where Jupiter is now, and we can know who had better luck to win the lottery now.

B.4 Claim: People born under Aries tend to be spontaneous, frank and open (because Aries is the first sign and represents youthness) - Check whose signs are Aries, and they must have those patterns.
