Program Review is about documenting the discussions and plans you have for improving student success in your program and sharing that information with the college community. It is also about linking your plans to decisions about resource allocations. With that in mind, please answer the following questions.

1.1D. Equity: One of the goals of the College's Student Equity plan is to close the performance gap for disproportionately impacted students, including African-American, Hispanic/Latino, and Filipino/Pacific Islanders. If your service trend for these students (or other groups not listed above, such as foster youth, veterans, and students with disabilities) is declining, what is your program doing to address this?

Given that EOPS/CARE supports underrepresented students who are able to meet the EOPS/CARE's program requirement(s) - being an educationally and financially disadvantaged student. Are intent is to market specifically to these groups during SOAR events as well as with area high schools, community organizations and partnerships. We also continue to partner with the Early Alert, FYE (pilot), Veterans, DDRC and tutorial programs programs and services.

Have numbers declined for any of these groups? If so, what are we doing to address this?

The mission of EOPS is to address issues of equity for disproportionately impacted students. If our numbers are declining, such as for African American students, we are working with Marketing and Outreach to recruit more underrepresented students. In addition, we will be partnering with the new Early Alert program to coordinate better follow-up services for both programs. Finally, with a more robust staff of an EOPS/CARE Supervisor and EOPS Program Coordinator full time, we will be able to have the individuals in those positions actively recruit at local schools and community centers.

1.1E. Service Area: How has assessment and reflection of service-area Student Learning Outcomes (SA-SLOs) led to program changes and/or improvements?

The following are four active SA-SLO for EOPS courses:

Orientation via CNSL 275, Recruitment and Retention, Indirect Aid-Textbook Service and Tutoring. All which are implemented every quarter with the upmost effort given the limited resources. Every quarter we make sure we provide enough sections of CNSL 275 to meet demand. We have developed an administrative structure to assure that every student receives an orientation the first quarter the student enters the program in order to meet EOPS state regulations. Some flexibility is available to complete the orientation by the second quarter of EOPS participation.

The Recruitment and Retention has only partially been meet with minimal changes or improvements. Recruitment efforts need to be improved. We lost the consistent connection with the local service area high school. No major changes have been implemented to improve in this component, since staffing has been an issue. All efforts have been in place to maintain retention. Every working member of EOPS is 100% committed to providing as much support as possible with admission, financial aid, registration and counseling concerns. Students are required to meet with a counselor 2X per quarter. A challenge that is not met because not all students meet with a counselor twice, mainly due to not having enough counselors to accomplish our intended task.

Indirect Aid-Textbook Service is dependent on state funding. With limited funding the book service amount that is granted to students has fluctuated. Adjustments have been done in the dollar amount provided for each student on a quarter-to-quarter basis to assure the best result possible for students and budgeting. As budget increased, we moved towards providing full service for all required textbooks.

For Tutoring, it has been assessed that we do not have the administrative capacity and study space to accommodate all tutoring request. A considerable percentage of tutoring request go un-served every quarter. Additional personnel to assist have been put in place to alleviate some of the administrative responsibilities needed to effectively coordinate this service. Further restructuring is expected in the immediate future to establish a consistent level of quality service. Working with the new Early Alert program as well as English and math tutorial centers to collaborate services will be helpful.

1.1E. SA-SLOs: If your program’s SA-SLOs are not being met, please discuss your program objectives aimed at addressing this.

Lack of personnel is the biggest reason for not achieving our target in all areas of our active SA-SLOs. EOPS administration is looking for ways to possibly add a part-time counselor in order to provide the required two counseling sessions per quarter. There is also a strategy to hire an individual that will be asked to devote more time in recruiting in our service are and work towards developing strong relations with the local high schools in order to increase the number of student served in our community. Plans are in the works of hiring an individual that will focus on improving tutoring services in order to meet our program objective of providing tutoring to every individual that needs tutoring and submits a request.

SECTION 1.2: INSTRUCTIONAL PROGRAM DATA & ENROLLMENT

If your program has an instructional component, please complete Section 1.2. If your program does not have an instructional component, please skip to Section 2.

Please provide the rationale for offering a non-transcriptable program and share the most recent program completion data.

The only two courses (CNSL 275 and CRLP 55) offered via EOPS Department are not applicable to a non-transcriptable program either. These unique courses were created and developed with the intention of providing additional support to the EOPS mission. CNSL 275 has a heavy orientation component in which EOPS responsibilities and benefits are outlined in great detail. CA Educational Code, EOPS Title 5 Regulations and Implementation Guidelines require an orientation component. CNSL 275 meets this requirement, hence why this course is mandatory for all entering EOPS Students. This course also offers customized information on academic skills and other campus resources, which is essential for retention. CRLP 55 provides an opportunity for new EOPS students who just graduated from high school to make a smooth transition into college by learning important academic, career and lifelong strategies for success in the classroom and in the professional world. The ultimate purpose is to create an environment with a higher level college adjustment and retention among our EOPS students.

Updated 10.22.15
1.2G. Equity: One of the goals of the College’s Student Equity plan is to close the performance gap for disproportionately impacted students, including African-American, Hispanic/Latino, and Filipinos/Pacific Islanders. If the course success rates for these students (or other groups not listed above, such as foster youth, veterans, and students with disabilities) is below that of the College, what is your program doing to address this?

Our course demographics are exactly as our department or service area demographics. Issues of equity that are faced at a service area level are parallel to those of course level given that all new EOPS students must take CNSL 275. It is worth mentioning, that for CRLP 55 the numbers for African American student is noticeably not as high as it should be. As our recruiting efforts improve, the demographics of CRLP 55 should improve in favor of having increased number of African American student participation.

1.1H Course Enrollment: If there are particular courses that are not getting sufficient enrollment, are regularly cancelled due to low enrollment, or are not scheduled, discuss how your program is addressing this issue.

Every fall term we offer 4 sections of CNSL 275 to accommodate the influx of new EOPS student. There is a trend in which only 3 out of 4 sections are filled; the other section gets cancelled due to low enrollment. Two sections are offered at the beginning of the quarter; the other two start mid-way through the quarter. The last two sections are more difficult to fill because of the late start. For an infinite amount of reasons, it just much harder for students to attend a course if it starts much later in the quarter. Our strategy has been to provide reminders to the students via email and phone. This strategy works enough towards having sufficient students show up to run only 1 of the 2 late start sections. Ideally, all four sections would be offered at the beginning of the quarter, but we don’t have enough counselors to be able to implement this strategy.

During the academic year 2014-15 we saw a decrease in the enrollment numbers for CNSL 275 from 240 students in 2013-14 to 178. This dramatic decrease in numbers is greatly due to the reduction of staffing in the EOPS Department. Previously we had personnel to assist with registering and tracking student enrollment into CNSL 275.

For CRLP 55 it has been a struggle to get the desired number of students. Eventually we do enroll enough students to have the course run, but it is with a lot of hard work very late in the cycle. The issue here has been the lack of consistent recruitment and building connections with the local high schools. As we move forward with the hiring of new staff, the recruitment should improve and process of enrolling students into CRLP 55 should as well.

1.1I. Productivity: Although the college productivity goal is 535, there are many factors that affect productivity (i.e. seat count / facilities / accreditation restrictions).

Program Productivity Trend: ☒ Increase □ Steady/No Change □ Decrease
Program Productivity (Compared to College Goal): □ Above Goal □ At Goal □ Below Goal

Please discuss what factors may be affecting your program’s productivity.

With an increase in personnel to support recruitment, tutoring, counseling and directing should increase productivity.

If your program’s productivity is below that of the College, please discuss your program objectives aimed at addressing this.
1.1J. Institutional Standard: This represents the lowest course completion (success) rate deemed acceptable by the College’s accrediting body (ACCJC). The institutional standard is 55%.

- Program Level Course Completion: ☒ Above Standard ☐ At Standard ☐ Below Standard
- Targeted Student Course Completion: ☒ Above Standard ☐ At Standard ☐ Below Standard
- Online Student Course Completion: ☐ Above Standard ☐ At Standard ☐ Below Standard (N/A)
- In-Person/Hybrid Course Completion: ☐ Above Standard ☐ At Standard ☐ Below Standard (N/A)

1.1K. Institutional Effectiveness (IEPI) Goal: This represents an aspirational goal for course completion (success) rates; all programs should strive to reach/surpass this goal. The IEPI goal is 71%.

- Program Level Course Completion: ☒ Above Goal ☐ At Goal ☐ Below Goal
- Targeted Student Course Completion: ☒ Above Goal ☐ At Goal ☐ Below Goal
- Online Student Course Completion: ☐ Above Goal ☐ At Goal ☐ Below Goal (N/A)
- In-Person/Hybrid Course Completion: ☐ Above Goal ☐ At Goal ☐ Below Goal (N/A)

Please comment on your program’s efforts to continually improve course completion (success) rates, especially for students with basic skills needs.

In CNSL 275, all students are reminded that this course is mandatory in order to continue receiving services in subsequent quarters. Students receive a phone call and email notification with important course information. Our success rate is above standard in comparison with the Counseling Division and the college. If needed follow up calls are made to students who do not attend the first day of instruction. For basic skills students, they are referred to campus resources such as the Teaching Learning Center and S.T.E.M Ctr. to assist them with English and math/science courses.

If your program’s course completion (success) rates are below the institutional standard (see above), please discuss your program objectives aimed at addressing this.

1.1L. Faculty Discussion: Does meaningful dialogue currently take place in shaping, evaluating, and assessing your program’s Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs)? ☒ Yes ☐ No

If yes, in what venues do these discussions take place? (Check all that apply)

☒ Department Meetings ☒ Opening Day ☒ Online Discussions ☐ Other:

If no, please discuss what is missing and/or the obstacles to ensuring dialogue takes place.

1.1M. Course-Level: How has assessment and reflection of CL-SLOs led to course-level changes?

As we looked to improve our CL-SLOs we knew we had to change our method of assessing our SLOs. In the spring 2015 we implemented a new strategy to incorporate an assessment tool to measure what we thought was the most important SLO for CNSL 275: “to demonstrate an intended level of involvement and commitment to EOPS responsibilities and expectations.” To assess our findings, we simply looked at all the students who completed the course successfully and tracked which completed all of their responsibilities that same term. The stated goal for this SLO is for at least 70% of students who successfully completed CNSL 275 should comply in meeting their EOPS responsibilities of submitting the required 2 progress reports and meeting with a counselor to update his/her educational plan. Looking at the combined results from both sections, we found that only 68% of the students who completed the course successfully actually completed all of their responsibilities.

If your program’s CL-SLOs are not being met, please indicate your program objectives aimed at addressing this.

Falling short of our goal, the following term we implemented additional exercises (such as quizzes) and more focused instruction as part of the class curriculum in order to increase the level of understanding of their responsibilities. We stress the importance of completing the program requirements throughout the course.

SECTION 2: SUMMARY OF PROGRAM OBJECTIVES & RESOURCE REQUESTS

Please comment on any challenges or obstacles with ongoing past objectives.

There were past hires of faculty tutors who were housed in the EOPS department. However, given limited and restricted hours the faculty tutors were available in the EOPS department, students did not take advantage of this service as expected. There clearly needs to be outreach efforts to EOPS students informing them of this service as well as expanding on the time availability of the faculty tutors hired. We are also in need of additional student tutors as there is room to grow this service.Retention piece is vital to the success of the EOPS program and tutoring plays a big part. We need to expand on this service to ensure that there are adequate numbers of tutors to assist our EOPS students. The ideal situation would be that upon submission of their first progress reports, all EOPS students requesting tutoring would receive the service as requested to help them succeed academically. An additional part-time counselor is definitely needed to support the student contacts that are required. Currently, there can be up to a three-week window for counseling appointment availability. There are many imminent issues that EOPS students face and it is vital that students can meet with their counselors without having to wait weeks before an appointment is available. Therefore, it is crucial that a part time counselor is hired to help with developing and establishing educational plans for EOPS students.

Please provide rationale behind any objectives that are no longer a priority for the program.

- Recognize and support a campus culture that values ongoing improvement and stewardship of resources.

Prior resource allocation was for the hiring of tutors in the EOPS Tutorial Center. With the increased number of students seeking tutorial services, it was beneficial for us to have hired tutors, especially faculty tutors and tutors who specialized in math or English.

3B. Summary: What else would you like to highlight about your program (e.g. innovative initiatives, collaborations, community service/outreach projects, etc.)?

The strengths of the program are the exemplary services offered to students - from the staff to the counselors - in assisting students with their academic, career and transfer goals. The strong connections made between the students and the “high-touch” atmosphere offered by the program keep students on track with their educational goals.

The services that are offered by the EOPS program embrace the concept of “over and above”. The counseling class that is provided to new EOPS students includes an orientation component along with invaluable resources and information for students. The computer lab, which provides free printing to students and access to a computer, is a big draw for our students. Computers are a huge cost for students in general and having this resource available is important. The fieldtrips to four-year universities give EOPS students an opportunity to explore the possibilities for transfer. These opportunities open doors for under-represented students to think of possible avenues that is available beyond Foothill College. In addition, EOPS specific scholarships are made available targeted only for EOPS students. This will increase the chance for an EOPS student to gain access to scholarships. The individualized counseling service, which is at that core of the EOPS program, holds EOPS students accountable for meeting with their counselors. This is invaluable for students, as they are made aware that there are EOPS specific counselors who are assigned specifically for them.

SECTION 5: FEEDBACK AND FOLLOW-UP

This section is for the Associate Vice President to provide feedback.

5A. Strengths and successes of the program as evidenced by the data and analysis:
The strengths of the program in addition to what is mentioned above (see 3B above) is the tutorial component that is offered along with book vouchers and scholarships offered as part of the EOPS/CARE programs. In addition to the staff and counselors of the program, these services help increase students' graduation and transfer rates.

5B. Areas of concern, if any:
With having a limited staff currently, it is increasingly difficult to maintain services to students. Now that our EOPS State Allocations have given us funding for more positions to assist us in serving students, we will be taking full advantage of that as we move forward in hiring a permanent Supervisor.

5C. Recommendations for improvement:
Ramp up outreach efforts with our additional staffing to be in place by Winter 2016.

5D. Recommended Next Steps:
- Proceed as Planned on Program Review Schedule
- Further Review / Out-of-Cycle In-Depth Review

Laureen Balducci
Associate Vice President, Student Services

This section is for the Vice President to provide feedback.

5E. Strengths and successes of the program as evidenced by the data and analysis:
The EOPS team is very cohesive and committed to student success. They have done an excellent job increasing participation, providing tutoring and help and following up with resources.

5F. Areas of concern, if any:
None

5G. Recommendations for improvement:
None
5H. Recommended Next Steps:

- Proceed as Planned on Program Review Schedule

Mission Statement:
To establish “over and above” support services and programs for financially and educationally disadvantaged students by creating an environment, which values each individual’s potential to achieve their academic, career and personal goals. This includes obtaining job skills, occupational certificates, associates degrees, and/or completing transfer requirements for four-year institutions.

Target:
It is expected that 100% of students, who participate in EOPS, must enroll and complete CNSL 275. There is some flexibility for student with extenuating circumstances to defer course to their second quarter of enrollment.

Assessment Findings/Reflections
Assessment Method:
12/02/2013 - A total of 8 sections of CNSL 275 (formerly 175) were offered in 2012-13. Out of a total of 198 students who registered in all section offered, 155 received a passing grade. Further analysis:

- Formula: number of students who completed course with a passing grade/total students = success rate
- Summer 2012: 23/26 = 88%
- Fall 2012: 68/83 = 82%
- Winter 2013: 34/41 = 83%
- Spring 2013: 20/48 = 42%
