1. Academic counseling in which the student is assisted in assessing, planning, and implementing his/her immediate and long-range goals.
2. Career counseling, in which the student is assisted in assessing his/her aptitudes, abilities, and interest, and is advised concerning the current and future employment trends.
3. Personal crisis counseling in which the student is assisted with personal, family or other social concerns, when that assistance is related to the student's education.
4. Coordination with other services provided, which include, but are not limited to, those provided for students with special needs, (e.g. disabled, disadvantaged, re-entry, or military students), stress testing programs, financial assistance programs, health services programs, and job placement services.
