All events are free!

Week 1

Monday, June 2

Transgender FTM Author: Max Wolf Valerio

Transgender author Max Wolf Valerio chronicles his transition from female to male in his autobiographical book _The Testosterone Files_. Learn how Valerio used hormone therapy to transition from one gender to another—and what he learned about male and female perspectives and passions in the process. Valerio will answer questions after the presentation. You must have a current OwlCard or employee ID to attend.

Times: 9–10 a.m.

Location: Campus Center Lounge

Wednesday, June 4

Lecture Series I:

Keynote Speaker Ed Gunawan

A football alumna who recently earned an M.B.A. from Loyola Marymount University, Edward Gunawan has launched a successful career as a professional model, writer, and filmmaker. His films have won awards internationally, including at the Jakarta International Film Festival and Rotterdam International Film Festival. He will answer your questions after the presentation. You must have a current OwlCard or employee ID to attend.

Times: 2–3 p.m.

Location: Campus Center Lounge

Thursday, June 5

Film Festival I: Family Reunion

Iloyd Uggadottir’s award-winning short film is a modern-day, coming-out story about a young Icelandic woman living two separate lives. One in gritty New York City’s Chinatown, and the other in pristine Iceland, complete with her grandmother’s 70th birthday, including dinner and marriage, children and her future. Does she continue living her dual life or risk outraging her family by revealing her true self? You must have a current OwlCard or employee ID to attend.

Times: 4–6 p.m.

Location: Campus Center Lounge

Week 2

Monday, June 9

Foothill College Authors Series

Featuring Kamble Scott

Local author and graphic novelist Kamble Scott will present his new book, _SOMA_, a graphic, sexually charged exploration of San Francisco’s gay bar scene and the culture of South of Market subculture. Scott will answer your questions after the presentation. The book is available at a 20 percent discount in the Foothill Bookstore while supplies last. Co-sponsored by the Foothill College President’s Office.

Times: 3–4 p.m.

Location: Campus Center Lounge

Tuesday, June 10

Lecture Series II:

Muslim American Author Samina Ali

Samina Ali’s award-winning novel, _Medusa on Rainy Days_, confronts the taboo subject of male homosexuality in the South Asian Indian community from the perspective of a Muslim woman forced into an arranged marriage. Ali is a former Foothill College English instructor, and recently returned from a pan-European tour sponsored by the Dutch government. Ali will answer your questions after the presentation. You must have a current OwlCard or employee ID to attend.

Times: 11–12:15 a.m.

Location: Campus Center Plaza

Wednesday, June 11

Annual Student Drag Show Contest & Barbecue

Enjoy some fun before finals! Our student contest features cash awards for the best female and male impersonators. Straight or gay, flaunt your best cross-dressing style. Awards include $250, first prize; $150, second prize; and $100, third prize. All contestants receive a $5 gift certificate. Enjoy a free barbecue lunch sponsored by the ASPC Activities Board. Free refreshments. You must have a current OwlCard or employee ID to attend.

Times: Noon–1 p.m.

Location: Campus Center Plaza

Thursday, June 12

Film Festival III: Celluloid Closet

Watch cinema history in Rob Epstein and Jeffrey Friedman’s documentary about how Waters pictures, especially Hollywood films, have portrayed LGBTI characters. It includes unforgettable interviews with Susan Sarandon, Tom Hanks, Tony Curtis, Whoopi Goldberg and many more. Following the event, a Theatre Arts Club (TAC) production of _Cabaret_ will occur. You must have a current OwlCard or employee ID to attend.

Times: Noon–Night

Location: Campus Center Lounge

Friday, June 13

Film Festival IV: Tokyo Godfathers

Munch on pork, pizza and sodas as you watch _Tokyo Godfathers_, a Japanese movie about three homeless friends: a young girl, a transvestite and a middle-aged homeless man. While foraging through some trash, they find an abandoned newborn. Follow them as they go on an adventure to find the baby’s parents. Co-sponsored by the Foothill’s Gay/Straight Alliance Club and Japanese Culture Club. Free refreshments. You must have a current OwlCard or employee ID to attend.

Times: 11:30–12:30 p.m.

Location: Campus Center Lounge

Friday, June 6

Mehndi Body Art

Mehndi artist Karen Osh has been designing patterns and painting bodies for eight years. You might also recognize her as the program coordinator from Foothill’s Career Center. In 1999 on a trip through Egypt, she had her hands painted with henna for the first time. Soon that journey, she has been mixing and experimenting with henna powder to create a semi-permanent, golden brown stain. Today, she will apply free mehndi art. You must sign up and space is extremely limited. Appointments begin at 11:30 a.m. in the Campus Center Plaza. We will provide free do-it-yourself mehndi jackets for others interested in experimenting with henna. Co-sponsored by Foothill Indian Student Association. You must have a current OwlCard or employee ID to attend.

Times: 11–3 p.m.

Location: Campus Center Plaza

Thursday, June 5

Film Festival II: Fire

After the meeting of the session, let the haze dry as you watch the Bollywood movie _Fire_, which was written and directed by Deepa Mehta. Due to its honest depiction of a lesbian relationship, when _Fire_ was first released, many were made to have it banned from theaters in India. Today, it’s considered a landmark in the Indian film industry. Co-sponsored by Foothill Indian Student Association.

You must have a current OwlCard or employee ID to attend.

Times: 2–4 p.m.

Location: Campus Center Lounge