Earn in ENGL 3 This Fall Quarter
This fall, enroll in Foothill's ENGL 3: Gay & Lesbian Literature course. The five-unit class is an introduction to the history and development of gay and lesbian literature as a continuous theme in the development of mainstream literary traditions and, more recently, as a separate and distinct literary genre. Readings selected to represent a variety of historical periods and containing works of fiction, poetry, and non-fiction genres. Emphasis on the emergence of semi-autobiographical strategies and narratives in the United States to the 20th century with the broader context of an ongoing clash of race, gender, religion, politics, and aesthetic definitions.

Earn College Credit
Earn 5 units by attending all 45 lectures and earning one unit of transferable credit. For more information and to register, call 650.949.7216, ext. 2180, or email Benal.Epinop@foothill.edu or visit Room 209B, PFA

Thursday, June 3
Lecture Series I: Homosexuality in the Arts
Foothill College Language Arts Instructor Simon Pennington and his Art 2C class invite you to a discussion about homosexuality in the arts. The class will specifically address homosexuality and the coded discourse in mid-19th Century art. Learn how differences and diversity were discussed within the context of a highly regimented conservative society with explicit cultural and sexual norms.
Appreciation Hall (Room 1901)
10-11 a.m.

Friday, June 4
Film Festival I: Girls Will Be Girls
It's a Drag, so join Eoni, Coco and Veta—all played by men—as they tear up the screen and each other in this hilarious romp reminiscent of the classic Valley of the Dolls. A campy blend of melodrama, comedy and mystery that's guaranteed to make you laugh. Free refreshments.
Heartiside Lounge (Room 3213)
Noon-2:30 p.m.

Week 2

Monday, June 7
Learn How To Be an Active Ally
If you're not sure what the LGBTQI acronym stands for or you want to learn how you can support friends and family, join us for this important workshop to understand the impact of homophobia, transphobia and discrimination, and how you can get involved as an ally. Showing up is the first step to creating a safer living and learning environment on campus and in our community. Bring an open mind and questions.
Presented by OutFit Program Coordinator Jue-Fung Chua-Casta
Heartiside Lounge (Room 3213)
Noon-1:00 p.m.

Tuesday, June 8
Lecture Series II: Jay Leibold
San Francisco author Jay Leibold, best known as the president of the San Francisco Mystery Writers' Association, presents an in-depth reading and discussion of his new crime-and-adventure novel, "The Women on the Train," a passionate psychological thriller which explores the depths of gay and lesbian relationships from the perspective of a straight, white male author. The discussion will be co-hosted by Foothill College Language Arts Instructor Scott Larrondo and Foothill College Language Arts Instructor Jordanne Finkleman's English 1B classes.
Heartiside Lounge (Room 3213)
Noon-1:30 p.m.
