Foothill College 2006 Women's History Month is dedicated to Foothill College President Judy G. Minor, Ed.D.
The Foothill-De Anza Community College District Board of Trustees unanimously selected Dr. Minor to serve as president of Foothill College beginning July 1, 2007. She has worked in an elevated administrative position since 1987 and in the California Community Colleges since 1979 when City College of San Francisco selected her as its chief of Administration & Finance. In the mid-1980s, she held two positions at the California Community Colleges Chancellor's Office: special assistant to the vice chancellor for student services and program coordinator for the Transfer Center Pilot Program. Dr. Minor also served De Anza College for 18 years as a number of positions, including that of acting president. Her presidential presidential service at De Anza was part of the development of the Office of the Vice President of Student Success and Services; chair of the Distance Learning Program; and acting dean of San Anselmo.
Dr. Minor earned her B.A., cum laude, in history and French as well as an M.Div. in history of the University of St. Francis.
