

2012 Governance Survey

Survey Respondents

Administrators	38%
Classified Staff	24%
Faculty	33%
Student	5%
Total respondents:	21

Possible respondents include all PaRC members, Academic Senate, Classified Senate, Core Mission workgroups members.

FOOTHILL COLLEGE

Elaine W. Kuo
College Researcher
6.21.2012

Governance Survey results

- Rate how well the resource allocation process is incorporated in the college decision-making process.

Excellent	Good	Fair	Poor
5%	75%	15%	5%

N=20

FOOTHILL COLLEGE

Governance Survey results

- Rate how well the resource allocation documents provide the appropriate information for college decision-making.

Excellent	Good	Fair	Poor
10%	80%	10%	0%

N=20

FOOTHILL COLLEGE

Governance Survey results

- What aspects of the resource prioritization process should be revised?

Select all that apply.

Criteria	75%
Timeline	44%
OPC's role	38%
PaRC's role	31%
Rubric	31%
VP's role	25%

Comments:

- Perception that all decision-making is being centralized at OPC.
- OPC taking on too much responsibility with a limited core group.
- Overlap between OPC and PaRC--OPC should make faculty/staff decisions.
- More training for classified as managers and faculty often do this as part of their job
- Need to go through this a couple years before we really know how it works.

N=16

FOOTHILL COLLEGE