

ADA/Academic Accommodation Review Process

Approved Academic Accommodations will remain in place and must be provided by the Instructional Faculty during the review process and until a final determination has been made. This process must be completed within 10 business days.

