

FOOTHILL COLLEGE

THE WOW FACTOR

Captivating Stories of the Foothill Faculty

Technology Leader of the Year

Congratulations to Kyle Brumbaugh (KCI) was awarded the Technology Leader of the Year at the 2018 National CUE (Computer-Using Educators) Conference, for his work at the KCI.

To see the video, visit

<https://youtu.be/TToYPfPgpt4>

Tenure Faculty Celebration

In early March, President Thuy, Chancellor Miner, and the Board of Trustees celebrated giving tenure to 9 outstanding Foothill faculty receiving tenure.

Congratulations to Ben Armerding, Patti Chan, Sara Cooper, Lisa Eshman, Eleazar (“JR”) Jimenez, Rosa Nguyen, Tiffany Rideaux, Sarah Williams, and Janet Weber.

Palo Alto City Council Recognizes Foothill's Emergency Medical Services Program

For providing quality programming and ongoing support to the City of Palo Alto's Emergency Medical Services, the Palo Alto City Council presented a Proclamation of Appreciation to the Foothill College Emergency Medical Services Program for educating emergency medical technicians and paramedics. Thank you to Board of Trustee President, Bruce Swenson for being part of the ceremony.

Fail State, A Dedication to Foothill Faculty

Former Foothill student Alexander Shebanow dedicates his documentary film, Fail State, to faculty Konnilyn Feig and Scott Lankford. Fail State is an expansive documentary exposé on predatory for-profit colleges and worsening inequality in American higher education. He attributes the documentary's development to his time at Foothill College and his influential instructors. Our quality instructors have the ability to inspire students to do great things, provide unique opportunities for students to find their voices, and give students the foundation to build their future.

Read Alexander's article at <https://www.forbes.com/sites/civcnation/2018/03/06/i-found-my-voice-in-community-college/#39d29bda4a20>

Foothill's Center for Applied Anthropology Reaches Out

A team of Foothill students recently went to The Language Academy in San Jose to teach 6th graders about why anthropology is important. Way to Go!

The Foothill Newspaper, The Script Takes the Prize...Several Prizes

Congratulations to The Script for winning Online General Excellence, Magazine General Excellence, an Honorable Mention in Feature Writing, and the two Leadership Achievement Awards at the Journalism Association of Community Colleges Conference. Thank you to Judy Walgren, Brian Lewis and Che Meneses for helping students achieve these great awards!

9 to 5 The Musical

Directed by Milissa Carey

Foothill Music Theatre in March presented 9 to 5 The Musical, directed by Foothill's very own, Milissa Carey. The musical is based on the 1980 movie of the same name, with music and lyrics by Dolly Parton.

Milissa was interviewed on KTVU (Channel 2) and discussed similarities between the musical and current events and the #MeToo Movement.

To see Milissa's news clip visit <http://www.ktvu.com/morning-news/317595712-video>

Tom Gough Becomes Spanish and Venetian Nobility

Tom Gough will be appearing at the City Lights Theater Company in their current production of The Merchant of Venice as the Prince of Aragon and the Duke of Venice running March 22 – April 22. This production also features eight current and former Foothill students in the production team.

Information can be found here: <https://cltc.org/>