Our Endangered Ocean: An Artist/Author Collaboration

In the Fall quarter of 2011, authors from Professor Scott Lankford's English 1A were paired with artists from Kent Manske's GID 74: Digital Art & Graphics class. Authors wrote papers in response to issues addressed in "Ted Danson's Oceana: Our Endangered Oceans and What We Can Do To Save Them". Artists created illustrations based on the subject selected and conversations with the author while they were researching and writing.
