ORIENTATION/EDUCATIONAL PLANNING PROCESS

I wish to challenge the Counseling 50 (Orientation to College) requirement.

A. Reason for challenge:

B. I further understand that by not following the usual matriculation orientation process, I am risking my success at Foothill College.

I have discussed this matter and completed an individual educational plan with a Foothill College counselor, who has signed below.

Instructions For Orientation Challenge Petition

Use this form to petition to be exempt from Counseling 50.

Step 1 Line A: Check all appropriate boxes

Step 2 Line B: State the reason you do not need to complete guidance 50.

Step 3 Line III: Obtain a counselor signature.

Step 4 Line IV: Sign the form.

Step 5 Tear off the pink or back copy for your records.

Step 6 Take the remaining copies of the form with your registration form to Admissions and Records.

NOTE TO STUDENT: Your petition may be denied if the Division Dean or counselor determines that you do not have sufficient preparation for the course you wish to take. Be prepared to discuss your high school coursework, related college classes, time away from school, and other factors which may affect your success in college.
